

Would you leave $1,600 on the table?

Every person counted
brings more than $1,600
to North Carolina in federal funds each year.

Those federal funds go
toward schools, housing, college tuition, new
roads, and much more.

The U.S. Census is fully confidential. Individual results are never published or shared, even with other government agencies.
